

I urge the FCC to maintain current ownership regulations on media. I do not want to see additional consolidation, and believe relaxing the rules would lead to such a consequence. Please do not let the rest of the media follow the tragic course of radio, with its 30% decline in owners and loss of localism in programming. Maintain ownership caps on June 2, 2003.